

Rozemarijn Bergsma Junior Associate

Rozemarijn Bergsma (admitted to the Bar in 2019) works from our Rotterdam office and handles economic and general criminal cases.

Education and career

In 2016 Rozemarijn obtained her bachelor's degree in Dutch Law at the University of Groningen. After that she obtained a master's degree in Dutch Criminal law and Criminal procedural law and a master's degree in Crisis and Security management at Leiden University. During her studies, Rozemarijn gained experience at the European Parliament and at a law office.

Before becoming an associate at Sjöcrona Van Stigt Advocates, Rozemarijn worked at our firm as a paralegal.
