

Dineke Postma Associate

Dineke Postma (admitted to the Bar in 2016) mainly handles the defence in fraud -, money-laundering - and economic criminal law cases, including environmental criminal law cases. She also assists victims of crime and she is active in criminal cassation procedures before the Supreme Court. During her work at several courts and her work as a lawyer, she has built up a unique work experience in all these areas of criminal law.

Education and career

Dineke Postma graduated from Leiden University with a Master's degree in Criminal Law (2001). After her studies she started her career at the criminal section of the Court of Appeal in The Hague, as a legal advisor and (senior) registrar. After five years, she joined the Scientific Desk at the Supreme Court, where she worked for eight years as a legal advisor in criminal cases. In 2016 she started as a criminal defence attorney.

Dineke has been an active deputy judge for years at the court of North Holland (Haarlem and Schiphol). In 2015 she started as a deputy judge in appeal, at the Court of Appeal in Amsterdam, where she is still active as a deputy judge. Dineke publishes regularly in the field of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure Law.

In december 2019 Dineke joined our team as a lawyer. She works from our office in Rotterdam.
